More Complaints on Smells

There have been several new complaints from Altona residents regarding the smell issuing from industry in the Shire.

At the last council meeting Cr. H. W. Lee reported complaints of smells considered by residents to come from the refinery and other petroleum industries.

He said he was aware the experts were still carrying on with a survey into gases, &c. He suggested it may be possible to obtain an interim report.

Cr. Lee said the atmosphere last Sunday night was particularly heavy with some type of chemical. At the time there was very little wind. He said the experts had been working on the problem for several weeks and he would like to know what progress they have made. He wishes to receive an interim report to keep up with affairs in the community.

Cr. McIntosh supported Cr. Lee's move for an interim report and said recently clothes left out all night on the clothes line at his own home had been speckled with what appeared to be soot. Council agreed to ask for the report.

The shire secretary (Mr. J. W. Waters) suggested residents should have notified the health inspector of the soot deposit.

Before the conclusion of the meeting Mr. R. Phillips of Civic Parade, was given permission by the shire president (Cr. G. den Dulk) to address the meeting.

He told councillors that when he came to live in Altona 30 years ago, it was a good place in which to live. Windows and doors could be opened wide to let the fresh air enter. Now he said he dare not open the bedroom window at night time. If he did so the room filled with a rotten stench.

Mr. Phillips said the weekend before last the vile stench was very noticeable. He said there was never any trouble before the refinery was built—he considered it all started after the construction of the refinery.

He said on a north wind day the smell was always there (Mr. Phillips lives due south of the refinery) and added he supposed when the wind blew in other directions somebody else suffered.

"The place is not worth living in since they came," said Mr. Phillips.

He said he had been dubious about the origin of the smell until one weekend before last. But while the smell was bad he asked a neighbour to ride his bike up the road and track it down. On return his neighbour informed him the refinery was responsible for the offence.

Cr. Cresser interjected to say he couldn't agree more.

Cr. Lee said the council is always trying to seek some way of eliminating this problem and asked Mr. Phillips if he could suggest a solution.

Mr. Phillips considered there must be some clause in the Local Government Act which would enable the Shire Council in trying to seek some way to solve the prob-

NEW JUSTICES

Cr. G. den Dulk, president of Altona Shire, and Cr. A. Davis, president of Werribee Shire, have been installed as Justices of the Peace.

At an impressive ceremony in the court house in Lonsdale Street, 23 new shire presidents and mayors took part.

NO RECOMPENSE FOR FLOOD DAMAGE

The Board of Works will not reimburse property owners on The Esplanade, Altona, for any damage caused by the storm of July 13 last.

This is the reply received by the Altona Shire Council to their request for compensation from the MMBW for the owners.

The Planning and Highways Committee has considered the request but the board is not prepared to accept any liability in this regard.

Corner Road Costs Reduced

Altona Shire Council has adopted a new policy for apportionment of street costs for corner allotments. Owners will now pay the full cost of roading in front of their properties but only one third of the cost of the side street. Previously owners, as well as full cost for the frontages, were paying one half the cost of the side road.

Cr. Lee said he considered it unjust that these owners should have to bear the full half cost of the side roads.

He said the matter had been widely discussed and he believed corner owners should not be victimised with enormous street costs.

Where the sides of corner allotments are on access roads only, that is the side road has no actual allotments facing it, the owners have been paying the full cost of street construction. There were no frontages to lay off half the cost of the street as the usual procedure with other side streets.

The council considers this very unfair to the property owners. Therefore, the future policy of the council will be to charge these owners only one third for the side access road and meet the cost of the other two thirds out of revenue.

In future each new street scheme will be dealt with on its merits and in some cases it may be considered necessary to close the access roads.

CHANGE IN METHOD OF STREET CHARGING CONSIDERED

The shire engineer (Mr. R. C. Simmons) put forward a suggestion on street charging for councillors consideration.

The shire president (Cr. G. den Dulk) asked councillors to consider the suggestion before the next council meeting.

Mr. Simmons suggested instead of each owner being charged road costs for the actual footage in front of his property the costs should be apportioned equally between all building allotments fronting a street.

Some blocks are 50 ft., some 52 ft. 6 in., some 50 ft. 3 in., &c., each with a different assessment involving a lot of work, not so much in the engineering department, but to the administration section of the shire. Each assessment and interest has to be worked out individually each quarter. He said equal payment for each holding in a street would simplify matters a lot.

He considered the individual width of each building allotment unimportant as each resident of a street received the same benefit from their road. Why should one owner pay more than another for the same service?

NO TRAIN TICKET

Derek Newman, of Railway Street, Altona, was fined £3 with 10/- costs for travelling on a train without a ticket on August 9, and £3 with 10/- costs for failing to give his name and address.

A railway ticket examiner said he asked Newman for his name and address after he could produce no ticket, but he refused to give it. Until he was threatened with police action at the station he still refused.

PROBATION FOR STEALING

Errol Arthur Hyde, 19 years, of Irwin Avenue, Altona North, was charged that between August 20 and August 31, at Altona North he did steal a quantity of timber, the property of Broons Constructions Pty. Ltd, valued at about £13/10-. He pleaded guilty.

Cecil Newman, of Akuna Street, Altona office manager of Broons Constructions, said they were building a house in Ginifer Avenue, Altona North, and the timber for the frame had been sent there. He inspected some timber at the police station and it was similar to that sent to the house.

Klausa Heese, a night watchman with Metropolitan Night Patrol, said on August 31 at about 1 a.m. he was checking in Altona North area and saw a car pull up in Ginifer Avenue, and the driver loaded up timber into the car. Heese started up his engine and the driver, the defendant, dropped the timber he was holding, got in his car and drove off into a dead end street. He then saw the driver throw timber from his car on to the road. He went up and spoke to the driver and said, "Where is the wood?" The driver said, "It's on the side of the road." He asked him what he was going to do with the timber and defendant said, "I'm using it at the back of my home."

First Constable Howard said he went to Chambers Road, Altona North where he spoke to Heese, who was holding defendant. At the end of the road he saw a car with scantling timber beside it. Defendant said it was his car and that he took the timber from a house up the road. They went to defendant's home where he saw a partly completed bungalow in the back yard, and more scantling timber there. Defendant said he took that from the house too. He said his mother had given him the money to buy the timber but he used it to register his car and had to get it

HADN'T PAID

Richard Green, of Maidstone Street, Altona, was fined £4 with 10/- costs for travelling without a ticket on a train on July 29.

WITHOUT A TICKET

Salvatore Radello, of College Road, Werribee, was fined £4 with 10/- costs for travelling from Werribee to Paisley without a ticket on June 5.

from somewhere. He had taken the timber over the last week.

Mr. P. J. O'Connor, S.M., asked Hyde how much he earned and on being told £15, said, "It's plenty of money for a 19-year-old to get by on without having to steal. If someone stole timber from your yard what would you do?"

Hyde said, "I would get the police."

Mr. O'Connor told Hyde, "There is only one thing wrong with you, you don't know the meaning of honesty and you had better learn as soon as possible or you will find yourself in Pentridge." He placed Hyde on probation for 12 months.

Sea Wall to be Reconstructed

The sea wall along The Esplanade, near Sargood Street, Altona, which was damaged during the storm in July of this year is to be rebuilt.

The Planning and Highways Committee of the Board of Works has approved of tenders being invited as soon as possible for the reconstruction of 350 feet of the existing sub-standard wall in the vicinity of Sargood Street. Cost is estimated at £7000.

In view of the urgency of this work the Board has found it necessary to defer the proposed extension of the sea wall at Maidstone Street until later in the financial year.

The council does not wish to see the extension of the sea wall deferred indefinitely, therefore, they have made the matter an order of the day for six months time. This means in six months if the extensions have not been started the council will probably contact the Board on the matter.

EDITORIAL

YOUTH WEEK

No longer a child—not yet a man. This is the period of transition through which we all have passed or will pass.

It is here that the child enters and makes consciously and unconsciously decisions that must control and affect his after life. When from here the young man and young woman emerge, their paths in life are largely set.

Youth must make his own decisions. It is for adults to see he is not handicapped by lack of guidance and suitable influence. Youth clubs can play a vital part. We agree no club exists just "to keep the kids off the street." We also insist no club can compete with the home. The club is one of the many agencies in community life assisting parents to prepare young people for adult life. Congenial companionship and opportunities to find new interests and responsibilities are open to all members.

To often we are inclined to judge by the abnormal. We shudder to read of certain excesses by teenagers. These are bad, but obscure for us the fact that the greater majority of our youth are decent and law abiding. Such in the main are the members of our youth clubs. The fact that in the short period of 24 years there are now 300 youth clubs in Victoria is truly significant. The success of these clubs is due to certain essentials. Suitable locations and buildings, efficiently trained and dedicated leaders and an ever developing atmosphere of comradeship and service.

In this respect we are entirely fortunate in our Altona youth clubs. Thanks to the provision of the Altona Council they are suitably housed in Grant and Langshaw Reserves. In their diversified activities they have sufficient leadership.

Youth clubs do give service. We have seen this at various times in the past. Beach cleaning, national play centres and individual aid depending on the needs. This week, demonstrating the service aspect of their activities, the Altona Youth Club has engaged in a beach clean-up. This will be continued during the summer months.

The evening set aside for a display of youth work will serve several purposes. It will give an opportunity to parents and friends to see the various activities of the youth club members and to support by their presence the self-sacrificing efforts of the leaders.

At the weekend another aspect of the work has been scheduled. The Altona Youth Club will be hosts to Sunraysia Club members. Various outings and social activities will be indulged in.

The Altona Youth Clubs are thus two of the many clubs whose vital membership is shown in so many well organised activities.

MELBOURNE LADIES BENEVOLENT SOCIETY ACTIVE IN ALTONA

Melbourne Ladies Benevolent Society have forwarded details of their work in Altona to Shire Council.

In addition to distributing clothing and toys for Christmas, the Society has spent £118 in relief payments and delivered blankets to 46 families. They also visit new migrants when they arrive in the locality.

Some time ago they wrote in reference to a consideration in the allocation of money from the proposed community chest and were assured of a share in the disbursement of these funds.

Consequently the society felt that the council is entitled to know to what extent they have helped residents in the Shire.

Cr. Bond commented on the good work they are doing throughout the Shire and suggested the society be referred to the Charity Organisation, Cr. J. J. Gniifer, for his report to be presented to council in two months time.

INSURANCE CO'S ASKED TO HELP

The Australian Road Safety Council has decided to request all instrumentatities and companies engaged in motor vehicle insurance to collate and make available road accident statistics based on insurance claim records.

The move is designed to enable the Council to strengthen the statistical information on which many of its road safety education campaigns are based.

Inter High School Sports Results

Altona Girl Again Excels

Agnes Klisenko, of Altona High School, was the star of the Western Division (B Section) of the Metropolitan High Schools' sports at Olympic Park yesterday.

Agnes won four open championship events—75 yards, 100 yards, 220 yards and the long jump.

She was also a member of the successful open relay team. She was the last runner in the team and when she commenced her run the team was running third, five yards behind the leaders—she ran a magnificent lap, not only making up the five yards leeway, but taking her team on to win by five yards.

Last month she was the winner of two girls' open championships at the Junior Olympiad held at Newport.

Barry Bolger and Julie Robertson, both Altona North students, broke the records in the boys' under 13 long jump and girls' under 13 high jump.

The boys of the Altona High School were also very successful in the open events. They carried off the 100 yards, 220 yards, 440 yards, 880 yards, relay, long jump, hop, step and jump and the shot put.

The school won the senior section of the sports, but came second in the aggregate.

The Altona North High School won the only other girls' open championship and the boys won the high jump.

It seems Altona had a strange hold on open events at the sports, as the only championship they did not win was the mile race for boys, which was won by Sunshine West.

ANOTHER WELFARE SISTER NEEDED?

The following report has been compiled by the Health Department following the Altona Shire Council's decision to plan for the appointment of a third Infant Welfare Sister.

"The work load of the Sisters in your municipality is steadily increasing. In 1962 the number of birth notifications received for the whole municipality was considerably more than we advocate for two Sisters.

"As you know 200 birth notifications a year are considered to provide full employment for one Sister. In 1962 there were 556 and I am quite certain that the 1963 figure will be at least 44 more bringing the figure up to 600. This would justify the appointment of a third Sister.

"The area in which they are working makes heavy demands on their time. There are many New Australians and coping with the language difficulties and their unfamiliarity with local conditions makes it necessary to spend a much longer time with each mother. More home visiting is also required."

FASHION PARADE

Hats were the main attraction at the parade of spring hats and fashions in St. Mary's Hall last Monday night.

In the main the hats had very high crowns and in keeping with the latest fashion, a simple line. They were predominately red or white.

There were hats for all ages, for all occasions—hats for town wear, hats for late afternoon, special occasions, hats, race hats and of course hats for the Melbourne Cup. They were made of straw and Thai silk—some with very large brims, some with tiny brims. There were floral hats and organza hats—all very attractive.

Among the fashions paraded were three piece linen suits, linen skirts, bathers and frocks for ladies from junior girls to matrons.

Very popular were a navy spotted white frock with a finely pleated skirt—a false basque gave the impression of a two piece outfit; a white silk frock patterned with black circles and lines, also a flax coloured linen frock trimmed with tan linen.

At the end of the parade sheaths and posies of flowers were presented to the compere, mannequins and the pianist. These flowers and the stage centre piece were the work of Mrs. Lena Cox.

MEN'S CRUSADE

This month the Men's Society at St. Eanswythe's will be taking, as their monthly meeting, a trip to the Festival Hall to take part in the Men's Crusade being organised by the inter church council of men's societies.

This will mean that they will not be meeting on their usual night, the third Friday but about 10 days later. The main group will be going to the Crusade Rally on Tuesday, October 28, at 8 p.m., but there should also be some going on Thursday, October 31.

The main speaker at the Crusade Rallies will be Dr. Richard Halverson, Minister of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Washington, USA.

Dr. Halverson is a 47-year-old Doctor of Laws, and Bachelor of Theology and of Science. He is an outstanding evangelist, with a special gift for getting across to men, and has toured the Orient on several occasions.

He will be speaking at two rallies in Melbourne, and at four in Victorian Provincial cities.

A group of 15 businessmen is accompanying Dr. Halverson at their own expense, to assist him in the Crusade.

KINDERGARTEN ATTENDANCES

Perusal of the reports by the Kindergarten Directors shows that the attendance is not as high as the enrolments.

An approach has been made to the Health Department to permit enrolments to be increased by say two children in the hope that the daily average would approach the number for which facilities have been provided.

The Health Department disapproves of such suggestion.

OBITUARY

Mr. Oswald John Forrester, of Queen Street, Altona, who died on Sunday October 6, was a man of many interests.

On his retirement 10 years ago as station master from the Victorian Railways, he moved to Altona. Here among many pursuits he was able to indulge in his model boat building hobby. He donated several models to charitable organisations.

He lived for the betterment of Altona and was vitally concerned with the drainage of Maldstone Street. It was largely through his efforts that the drainage scheme in this area was introduced.

He also devoted much time to what he firmly considered was the solution of Altona's beach problems—the sand trap. Even on the day of his sudden death he had been discussing his invention which he was convinced was the only answer to the forming of a new beach at Altona.

He is survived by his wife and married son, Jack.

South take '63 Flag in thrilling match against Altona

With more purpose in their approach to goal and a winning ruck, Werribee South won their eighth premiership by defeating a determined Altona by 10 points in the grand final at Chirnside Park on Saturday last in ideal conditions.

Werribee South v. Altona
1st Quarter	2	2	8	2	2 14
2nd Quarter	5	7	37	6	3 39
3rd Quarter	6	10	46	6	5 41
FINAL	10	13	73	9	9 63

1st QUARTER

South had won the toss and elected to kick to the bridge end but Altona started more decisively and soon had the ball in their scoring zone. But they were ruining their chance by all flying for the ball together and leaving no one standing to take the crumbs. They scored a point before South went into attack. This onset was easily repelled by the Altona defence and it was evident that they were in for another of their good performances. Andrew Gouloupoulos was giving South a lot of drive from the ruck, but his rovers were spoiling his good work by their poor kicking.

However, they weren't the only ones, as Altona were also having trouble with their disposal. The only reason possible under the conditions could have been "butterflies."

Altona were persistent in their attacking and this was soon rewarded when Geoff Newman sent the ball into the square where Bruno Aquilante goaled. South's defence of Rod James, Peter Allison and Robert Dove were battling hard to hold Altona out and had they not been so solid Altona may have scored more in this early portion of the term.

South were well on top in the rucks and it did not take them long to sweep the ball forward again.

Jeff Garfield provided one of the highlights of the game when he marked spectacularly in the centre of the ground and his kick put his side back into attack. A free to Kerryn O'Brien saw South having a chance of scoring and when Ian Dent marked and sent the ball into the teeth of goal Ted Bloomfield raced in and did the rest. South were now well in the fight but had not yet gained an edge.

Bob Combes was winning well on his wing for Altona and at this early stage it was obvious that the man playing the ball was being protected by the umpire. The tempo of the game increased and Werribee South's Bloomfield again proved dangerous as he sent a kick to Ken Munyard.

However, the latter missed from close range and it did not take the Altona defence long to send the ball back into attack. They proceeded cleverly around the scoreboard wing, using brilliant handball and short passing. This culminated in Barry Hogan scoring their second for the term and gave them a one goal lead at the first change. The manner in which they sent the ball forward on this occasion was such that only a few repetitions would have seen South in trouble.

2nd QUARTER

From the bounce South were immediately into attack and when Ken Munyard marked they looked certain to even the score.

But a foolish infringement by Munyard saw the umpire take the ball from him and give it the other way—a good decision. Altona appeared to be well on top as they were in every thing. John Andrew was going well as too were Mario Piovesan, Derek York and Herb Williams.

They took control when Bill Rowson picked up near goal and made no mistake.

South, however, soon replied when captain Tom Stoios hand passed to Barry Hayes on the run and he brought up a major. The ball then saw-sawed between defences very rapidly and quick goals to John Petersen of Altona and Tom Stoios of South put the spectators on their toes. Altona again seemed to gain the initiative and they attacked. However, Rod James cleared for South, only to see Bob Combes and Noel Rohleder combine well out on the wing to send the ball back post-haste. Bruno Aquilante capped this attack off by goaling for his second and gave his side a good lead. It was not long after that he goaled again and the lead Altona had built up was beginning to worry South. South then tried valiantly to bridge the gap.

They went forward and found Ken Munyard in reasonable distance but his kick missed the target and was easily turned out by Altona. Ted Bloomfield again appeared on the scene and passed to Andrew Gouloupoulos who sent a beautiful 50 yarder right through the centre. With a minute left for the half South again surged forward and a goal on the bell to Kerryn O'Brien made their position a little more respectable as they were now only two points down.

3rd QUARTER

The third quarter was definitely a battle of defences as each side struggled to gain the initiative. The commencement was very tame but it wasn't long before fire crept into the game.

Noel Rohleder received a free for Altona as a result and his kick went into the goal mouth but was cleared by South without any apparent effort. The standard of the play was now dropping as the game was developing into a hard fought battle for supremacy. Werribee South had control as they outmarked their opponents repeatedly. This was evidenced by their 18 marks for the term to Altona's six.

Much of the credit for holding South must go to Altona full back Ian Harris. He continually marked their attacks and was one of the main reasons they were still in the game at the end of this term.

In an uneventful quarter South had the ball on their forward line for most of the time but failed to do much with it. However, on the bell, which many players and the umpire failed to hear, Ken Munyard marked and kicked to Tom Stoios who kicked a lucky goal, which was the only one registered for the term.

Surely Werribee League officials will investigate the possibility of replacing the present siren with a new louder one. The standard of football throughout this series has proved itself worthy of better necessary equipment to prevent a repetition of this unfortunate occurrence. Without retracting anything from South's win we feel that this had a decided psychological effect on the Altona players and could have been the reason for their defeat.

Altona had turned in a dismal display in this term and had it not been for their defence South may have had a strangle hold on the game at this stage.

FINAL QUARTER

In a torrid start to the final term, neither side was finding it easy to break away and it wasn't until South received a free kick in the centre of the ground that they went forward.

Andrew Gouloupoulos then marked in front and the resulting goal gave South an 11 point lead. Then fire again crept in and the umpires had a hectic time attempting to quieten tempers.

However, South were soon into attack again and Kerryn

O'Brien added his second to give them a handy lead. South appeared to be in command and a great revival was needed on the part of Altona if they were to be successful. They tried hard to bridge the gap and when Mario Piovesan sent a colossal shot through it looked like as if they were in business. They had the ball on their forward line for the next 10 minutes but found it hard to break the South defence which was battling well under pressure. Then Piovesan goaled again and with the difference now only a goal, the struggle was on in earnest.

Ron Macknamara, who had rucked tirelessly for South all day, then steadied his side more often than not his attacks were returned by Ian Harris or Denis Callender. Altona went back into attack and a point to Mario Piovesan made the difference five points.

Then from his wing position clever Bob Combes made a desperate effort to give Altona the lead but his kick hit the post. Combes was very damaging for Altona and South did not appear to have any counter for him. Had his shot gone through the story may have been different but that's the luck of the game.

Altona's determination kept them in attack but their forwards, with the exception of Piovesan, were letting them down. With a premiership at stake South sent the ball back to the target area where flanker Jeff Garfield regained their 10 point lead.

Then Noel Rohleder goaled and the battle was still on. However, with only minutes to play Andrew Gouloupoulos sealed Altona's fate with a goal. Altona went back up forward but the siren was too close and their hopes of taking the premiership outside of Werribee had failed.

Both sides had played a marvellous game and the respective coaches, Bill Comben of South and Reg Featherby of Altona are to be congratulated on the way in which they turned their charges out for this game. To Werribee South we say, congratulations on a job well done, and to Altona, congratulations on a fine effort and may you have your chance in 1964.

CENTRALS DISPLAY POWER FOOTBALL TO TAKE FLAG

Power, pace and strength were the qualities Central Altona possessed when they ran away from Werribee South to take the junior premiership by 53 points at Chirnside Park last Sunday.

	Central	Altona	v. W. South
1st Quarter	3	0	18 3 3 21
2nd Quarter	7	3	45 4 4 28
3rd Quarter	9	5	59 7 6 48
FINAL	17	9	111 8 10 58

1st QUARTER

Centrals won the toss and selected the bridge end. South were first to attack and after a battle in the goal square Bobby Edwards picked up and South were on top.

South were winning in the ruck but the drive gained from this division was being foiled by the strong Centrals defence led by Graeme Coulson.

When Centrals went into attack their elusive forwards made excellent position and the break away tactics of captain Eddie Wallace and the good marking of John Mercer and Ken Robinson were proving a problem for South to overcome. South, on the other hand, used the short game in their approach to goal and the high marking and accurate passing of John Tyquin was proving a delight to see. South went to a two goal lead approximately 18 minutes into the term after successive free kicks to full forward Bob Edwards were kicked truly. However, with strong, speedy football, Centrals surged forward and goals to John Mercer and Ken Robinson put them within three points of their lighter opponents at the first change.

2nd QUARTER

Centrals appeared to take control early in the second term and after a quick attack by South was capably repelled by Graeme Coulson, Centrals swept forward As a result Mercer booted another and Centrals seemed to be set for a good lead at half time. Each time they attacked it appeared so effortless that South did not seem to have any answer to their strength and pace. Robert Johnstone put them 10 points up, but another to Bob Edwards brought the margin back to four points. This was Edward's fourth goal, three of which had been from free kicks close to goal, but under the circumstances his feat was no discredit to Centrals full back Graeme Coulson.

Centrals now had South rattled. Repeatedly Mercer and Robinson were let do as they wished on the forward line and this resulted in a goal as the former was left standing unguarded in the square. Robinson marked strongly minutes later and with a lead of three goals now Centrals were in command. South had a chance to improve their position when Bert Allison marked in front, but his kick missed and they went to the interval 17 points down.

3rd QUARTER

South went into the third term with an abundance of zest but their hopes received an immediate setback when John Mercer kicked yet another goal. Centrals followed this with constant attacks and the South defence was under relentless pressure. However, after a torrid battle, Ian McNaughton cleared the ball on to the wing where John Tyquin again marked and then passed well to land the ball in the teeth of goal where clever scouting by Bob Edwards resulted in him gaining his fifth and his sides sixth goal.

Not long after he made the tally six and South were now beginning to fight back. South then maintained the pressure but, through inaccurate kicking in front of goal and continual harassing by the Central defence, could only manage behinds. Although his opponent had booted six goals Coulson was like the Rock of Gibraltar for Centrals and was very valuable to his side in these hectic moments.

Under pressure Centrals again fought back into attack where Geoff Crawford found Mercer for another. Centrals had maintained their good lead and went into the last term appearing to be in the box seat.

FINAL QUARTER
In a fantastic last quarter Centrals romped away from their opponents. The strength in the packs enabled them to clear the ball into the open where their clever team work swooped the ball goalward. South offered little resistance to this powerful side and only had the ball on their forward line on odd occasions. Geoff Crawford started the fiasco and then it rained goals.

South managed to gain another two majors on the board through the agency of Bob Edwards and Kit Cullen, but these did not help them to any great extent whatsoever as Centrals ran out comfortable winners by 53 points.

Centrals had proved by far the better side and for a fine performance we congratulate coach Les Selman. South have a young side can expect better things to come in future years.

BEST PLAYERS

3 VOTES TO JOHN MERCER of Central Altona for a brilliant display at full forward. Kicking nine goals five behinds speaks for itself and he was the key to a winning forward line for Centrals.

2 VOTES TO DON TRAIA-NON of Werribee South for a desperate effort in the centre for South. His fast dashes and good driving kicks often put his side into attack and helped keep his side in the game.

1 VOTE TO GRAEME COULSTON of Central Altona for a solid display at full back. Although he had seven goals kicked against him, three of these from free kicks, had he not been there Centrals may have found themselves in trouble on quite a few occasions.

W. Council Does Not Favour Borough

Feelings ran high when the subject of forming Central Riding into a Borough was aired once again at the last Werribee Council meeting. On the agenda for the meeting was a letter held over from previous meetings asking council to inform ratepayers of their views in relation to the formation of a Borough.

Cr. Hudson said he thought the matter had been dealt with previously. But as it seemed a motion was needed he moved that a reply to the letter be sent informing the writer that ratepayers will be informed on council views if and when a move is made to form a Borough.

In seconding the motion Cr. Smith said he "Had heard this somewhere before."

"You will hear it again, too," interjected Cr. Baillie. "And again," replied Cr. Smith.

Cr. Earl suggested the motion did not supply the information the letter writer was seeking.

The letter dated August 5 requested councillors open views on the forming of Central Riding into a Borough.

Cr. Earl said he would oppose the motion as it stands as council had not discussed the matter and had not decided its views on the forming of a Borough. He considered there had only been a discussion in a round about way.

Cr. Hudson said there had been no discussion on anyone's point of view, the letter was premature.

It was not discussed by council but he considered it had been discussed elsewhere said Cr. Earl.

Cr. Hudson replied, "No discussion by Central Riding Councillors."

Cr. Earl asked if a meeting of interested people had been held on council property.

Cr. Hudson said "None," and said he wished to "firmly state there never had been any meeting on council property or anywhere else between Central Riding Councillors and ratepayers in regard to formation of a Borough."

Cr. Davis suggested stating in a reply to the letter that in the opinion of the council it was not wise to promote a Borough.

"I object," said Cr. Hudson. "I do not favour a Borough," said Cr. Baillie.

Cr. Smith said it is a matter of indifference if the council is in favour or not.

"It has nothing to do with the council," said Cr. Hudson.

Here Cr. Hudson's original motion was put to the vote and lost.

Cr. Smith then remarked the subject "Was as dead as could be, and was only brought up to suit some people at the time the letter was written." He went on to say he will not be afraid to say when the time is right to form a Borough and he will help as the council cannot do it.

Cr. Hudson said the discussion could carry on ad finitum. As a motion was needed on the minutes of a council meeting he moved a special meeting should be called to discuss the matter.

Seconded by Cr. Smith. Cr. Earl: "We seem to be getting away from the request in the letter."

Cr. Richmond suggested there had been enough discussion with no result.

Cr. Hudson asked was this special meeting was put to the vote. Again he lost.

Cr. Hudson asked was his letter to keep appearing on council agenda papers waiting for a reply.

Cr. Baillie moved that council at present was not in favour of forming a Borough within the township of Werribee.

Cr. Gibson seconded the motion.

"Motion ridiculous," said Cr. Hudson, "how does he know council is not in favour of a Borough, Cr. Baillie knows nothing about it. The motion is away from the point."

Cr. Smith said there were a lot of things for and against forming a Borough. A special meeting could have thrashed the matter out. In two years people will be clamouring to become a Borough.

"It is ridiculous for council to pass Cr. Baillie's motion without stating the reasons," said Cr. Hudson. He said the Central Riding is supposedly able to administer their own affairs, the rest of the Ridings are afraid they will miss out. It seems the four other Ridings will pass a resolution which does not concern them. It is a matter for ratepayers only. He suggested informing the letter writer the matter was for ratepayers, not the council.

Cr. Comben objected to the remark that Ridings "were afraid." He said East Riding was not afraid it was capable of looking after itself and if Central Riding wants to have meetings and can get enough people to attend it is up to the ratepayers. He repeated "East Riding is secure and not frightened of the consequences."

Cr. Baillie then finished off the discussion. He said the move behind the formation of a Borough was 99 per cent. financial reasons. He continued, "In the past we have helped Central Riding a lot but because Central did not get their own way on one or two occasions they have been upset ever since."

He considered Central Riding had been well treated and he was not afraid.

Cr. Baillie's motion was put to the vote and carried.

SPORTING PERSONALITIES PAST AND PRESENT

No. 10—KEN LAWLEY Williamstown Footballer.

Twenty-year-old Ken Lawley, who plays for Williamstown in the half back flank position, is another of the local sporting talent to prove his ability in the sporting field.

Lawley, who has spent his lifetime in the Altona district, first played competitive football with the Williamstown Technical School. He played for two seasons with that team on the half back line. From school football to the Footscray 5ths was the next step for Lawley; he being a member of their 1958 premiership side as a back pocket player.

In 1959 Lawley joined the Altona under 18's and in 1960 with the same team, was to have his best year as far as awards were concerned. These awards were covered by Lawley being named best and fairest player for the club, and third best and fairest in the Werribee League. The "Altona Star" trophy also went to Lawley in 1960.

South Melbourne Thirds had Lawley as a half back line player in their 1961 line up, and here again he was successful in being named as the best and fairest player for the club, who were runners up to Essendon that year.

Transferring to Williamstown in 1962, Lawley was successful in being named the best first year player with the second eighteen. This season, Lawley has played 14 games with the Williamstown 1st 18.

Lawley has not only confined his sport to the football field, as he has had a fair measure of success as a yachtsman with the Altona Yacht Club. As skipper of the cadet class "Domino," Lawley was successful in winning a club championship, and as a crew member of the crafts "Dawnie" and "Moonraker," he assisted in taking two other club championships.

Sport variety is a must with Lawley, as he can also claim to be a reasonable golfer. With the Koorringal Club he is on a handicap of 10, and has a best score of 77. He has also played successfully in junior pennant competition for the club.

Cricket also gets a mention with Lawley, if only as a schoolboy with the Seaholme State School—it was here that he had a high score of 75 runs while in the sixth grade.

Energetic and weighing 12½ stone, Lawley does not believe in being idle where sport is concerned, and during the off football season he intends to concentrate on squash and swimming.

ALTONA CRICKET CLUB NEWS

Altona Cricket Club 1st XI opened the season very well and are now in a strong position in the game against Williamstown CYMS being played at Williamstown.

CYMS in their first innings were dismissed for 42. Coach Eric Perussich bowled well and took the first wicket of the year for Altona and finished with 4/22.

Frank Kirk, showing all his old form with the ball, also shared in the wicket feast, taking 5/14.

Altona then went to bat, scoring a total of 98. During this innings some very fine hitting from Eric Perussich 28, and Joe Mildenhall 24, soon built up a handy lead for Altona.

Given good weather next Saturday no difficulty is expected in scoring an outright win.

In the game played on the minor oval at Grant Reserve Altona's second XI were in the unfortunate position of having two members of the team unavailable for the first week of the match and were forced to send Spotswood Imps. into bat.

Apart from a good hand by the Spotswood captain, no serious opposition was offered by the visitors, who were dismissed for 94.

John Robertson, well supported by the other bowlers, was most successful, taking 3/15.

Altona at stumps were 1/19 and with batsmen of the calibre of Frank Thomas and John Duncan to follow John Robertson and Ron Cook, who will be opening again on Saturday, high hopes are held for a first innings win.

RSL SPORTS NIGHT

On Wednesday, October 2 the first of the weekly sports nights was held. Quite a good night was enjoyed by all who attended.

Carpet bowls was the most popular game for the night, resulting in a very close finish between Alan Stephenson's team and Mick Johnston's team.

Alan carried off the honours with the last ball, resulting in an 8-6 finish.

Trophy winners were Mr. and Mrs. A. Stephenson, Mrs. V. Walker and Mrs. Don Forbes.

It was very hard to arrive at the most constant player as most players shined in that division by the amount of bowls off the mat.

It is intended to run euche tournaments at these evenings.

So to all members and in tending members, please come along with your wives. It could be your lucky night at 31 Sargood Street, every at 7.45 p.m.

TABLE TENNIS NEWS

During the week the first round of the 1963-64 summer pennant will be in progress, with 60 teams in 10 grades meeting in keen and friendly rivalry.

Table tennis has proved immensely popular in recent years, particularly since the introduction of the centre in Garden Street, Williamstown has enabled many new teams and players to enter competition ranks. Matches are now played on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, and indications are that before long Monday and Tuesday may also see competitions in progress.

In addition to this the centre also caters for many social players, who enjoy an hour or two of exercise and relaxation without the tension accompanying match play. The centre is open seven nights per week, and on Sunday afternoons.

ALTONA

Entering a team in C3 Altona have a trio of hard hitters in Joe Abela, Frank Bourchier and Tony Vitale.

PEDAL CLUB NOTES

On Sunday, October 13, the club will be going to the rally at Geelong West. It promises to be a great day.

All members are asked to be at 28 Linnett Street at 9.15 a.m.

Practice will be held on Tuesday night and Saturday afternoon.

OPEN FORUM FOR ALTONA HIGH PARENTS

As each school year progresses many questions concerning children's education come to parent's minds.

At the monthly meeting of the Altona High School Parents and Citizens Association many of these questions are discussed.

The association wishes to give all parents the opportunity of bringing up similar questions at the quarterly meeting this Friday, October 11, at 8 p.m.

To this end they intend holding an open forum at which the head master, Mr. Storey will be available to advise on general topics of interest to all parents. Why not take this opportunity to air your queries and problems?

Some of the questions which will be asked have been listed—your may be among them, if not, this is your chance to ask—

Are parents too concerned with examination results?

Are parents trying to force their child into a career for which he or she is not fitted?

Are parents fully aware of the problems of the child's transition from primary school to high school?

What chance has a child of winning a scholarship?

How will the next school leaving age affect students employment opportunities?

ALTONA NORTH YOUTH CLUB

Altona North Youth Club was formed in October, 1961. President, Mr. E. E. Barker, in his first annual report related a record of steady, if not spectacular progress. Two initial problems confronting the new club were lack of equipment and the need for qualified instructors. A building in Marion Street was provided by the Altona Shire Council.

Donations of £100 from the council and an equal amount from the Youth Advisory Council has been devoted to the purchase of necessary equipment but more is required.

The shortage of instructors is being overcome. In the opening months Mrs. W. J. Irwin gave valuable assistance with the girls. Two senior boys, Greg Grima and Alan Pawley attended classes of the Victorian Association of Youth Clubs with consequent benefit to members. Mr. Darby Drape is also a capable assistant.

Mr. Ron Marinesou is the boxing instructor. Mrs. Brigitte Puuseppu is now in charge of the girls classes. Miss Betty McClafferty, a black belt holder, conducts a judo class. The work of Mr. Bob Hammond has been an inspiration to all.

Mr. Derek Williams as the treasurer and an energetic club man gave invaluable service prior to his transfer to the country.

Youth club activities are confined to Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week. Wednesday for boys, Thursday for girls and Friday for the teenagers.

Boys are in three age groups, meeting at various times—the 6 to 9 years at 6.30 pm., 10 to 13 years at 7.30 p.m. and the older boys and some dads at 8.30 p.m.

Girls are in two age groups—6 to 9 years at 6.30 p.m. and others at 7.30 p.m. The teenage committee is headed by Miss Norma Hartley. A record "hop" is held each alternate Friday night and other social items are planned.

The president spoke highly of the loyalty and co-operation of the energetic committee and expressed his thanks. He also thanked Mr. Duffy, head master of Altona East Primary School, for his assistance in providing a meeting place.

He commended the club to all children over 6 years who live in the Altona North and Altona East areas and issued a strong invitation to parents to not only send their children to the club but to come and see them. The president is sure that in many cases an active interest will follow.

He regretted the club would not be participating in Youth Club week but plans at the present indicated that next years the members will play a full part.

W'TOWN TECH EX-STUDENTS

The next meeting of the Old Boy's Association will be held on Thursday, October 17, in room 3 at Williamstown Technical School at 7.30 p.m.

Your attendance at this meeting would be greatly appreciated, as we wish to discuss further developments of the association.

So far we have had two social functions which were both well attended and have now organised further activities consisting of a car trial and later in November, we have the first annual dance of the association.

Dates to be kept for those functions are—

Car Trial: Sunday, October 27.

Annual Dance, Saturday, November 30.

For further information contact the social secretary, Mr. D. Carruthers, phone 65-8795.

CUBS AND SCOUTS

Next weekend a working bee will be held at the "Pines Camp" commencing at 8 a.m. Helpers are requested to bring along tools. Morning and afternoon tea will be served. Ladies are also invited to help.

October 19 sees the annual district athletic sports, to be held at Werribee. Parents are asked to take an interest in this day and help with transport where possible.

On October 27 a parents field day will be held at the You-Yangs. Mum, instruct junior to make a stew for the family's dinner. Cars will leave the hall at 9 a.m.

DROVE WITHOUT A CAR LICENCE
Raymond Geoffrey Williams, 19 years, of Davies Street, Altona, was charged with driving on The Esplanade, Altona, without being licensed.
Constable Keegan said he saw defendant driving east in The Esplanade on August 17.
Williams, who pleaded guilty, told the Court he was teaching his brother how to drive.
Mr. P. J. O'Connor, S.M., told him, "As you haven't got a licence yourself you're a bit cheeky aren't you?"
He admitted a conviction for illegally using at Cobram Court in January, 1962, sentence of one month, and six months in Melbourne in February, 1962, for six counts of illegally using.
He was fined £7.
Raymond Williams was also fined £10 for driving a car without being licensed in Millers Road, Altona, on August 23, when he was intercepted by Constable Keegan.

SMOKED IN A NON-SMOKER
Andreas Papapoulos, of Sussex Street, Seaholme, was fined £1 with 10/- costs for smoking in a non-smoking compartment of a train on July 23.

NO CAR LICENCE
Clifford Williams, 17 years, of Davies Street, Altona, was charged with driving a car on The Esplanade, Altona, without being licensed. He pleaded guilty.
First Constable J. Locke said at 1.20 p.m. on August 17, he was with Constable Keegan in his private car and saw defendant driving east in The Esplanade. They turned round to intercept him and while the car was in front of them, saw defendant change places with the passenger.
He told Williams he saw him driving and asked him why he changed places while the car was in motion.
Williams said, "I haven't got a licence."
He was fined £5.

LABOR VIEWS

(The following article has been contributed to the "Altona Star" by the Central Executive of the Australian Labor Party.)

The Government neglect of industries vital to the defence and development of Australia was spotlighted recently by official government announcements and by questions asked by Labor Members in the Federal Parliament.

The Minister for Defence, Mr. Townley, confessed that the Government had allowed the aircraft industry to run down so much that skilled labour was being sought in the United Kingdom to build the Mirage fighters.

Five hundred men were urgently needed and special concessions were to be made to bring them out from England.

This is a shocking indictment of the Federal Government's policy. Why did they allow the aircraft industry to drift into a position where skilled workers left its employment to find security elsewhere?

The same thing is happening with shipbuilding.

Mr. C. Jones, M.P. (Labor, Newcastle), was recently told by the Minister for Navy (Senator Gorton) that although 82 ships had been built in Australian shipyards for the RAN since 1900, 53 had been constructed overseas.

Since the Menzies-McEwen coalition. For thirteen years they have been starved of orders at a time when Australia should have had flourishing industries.

The surprising thing is that only a few days ago the Minister for Navy stated in the Federal Parliament, "The aircraft industry in Australia is going along fairly well, so is the shipbuilding industry."

The facts disprove this assertion. They clearly reveal that the situation is typical of the complacent attitude of the whole Government.

The question that naturally arises from the admissions made by various Federal Ministers is, "What would have been Australia's position in a dire emergency?"

It is time the whole of the Federal Government's defence program was investigated by an independent commission. Australia cannot afford to let the situation slip by unnoticed. It does so at its peril.

THE D.L.P. SAYS...

(The following article has been contributed to the "Altona Star" by the Labor Federal Electorate Council of the Democratic Labor Party.—C. P. Meehan, Sec.)

The riots in Djakarta which resulted in the burning of the British Embassy and the homes and cars of British residents expressed the anger of Soekarno at the formation of Malaysia.

Malaysia has the backing of the British and Australian Governments. Australian troops serving in Malaya are now committed to the broader defence of Malaysia.

On the other hand America has sent messages of good will to Malaysia but it is doubtful that it has their backing.

American foreign policy in this sector is for aid to Indonesia. It will be remembered that American intervention enabled Soekarno to win West New Guinea.

The point to be made is that in order to back up a foreign policy Australia must have an adequate independent defence force.

In fact Australia spends less than 3 per cent. of the national income on defence. By comparison America spends 12 per cent. of its own national income on defence.

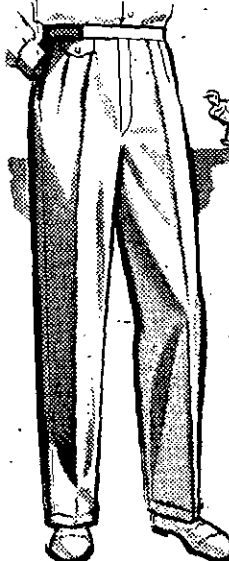

Australia could play no effective part in solving the West New Guinea problem because it has no effective military power of its own.

We are now committed to back Malaysia and it would be foolish to back down because this would weaken the British position and help to destroy the new nation. Soekarno would not be appeased.

We belong to the South East Asia region and if we are to become effective in South East Asian affairs then far more than 3 per cent. of the national income will need to be devoted to defence.
